

Now House Windsor 5

Can you teach an old house some new energy-saving tricks?

See for yourself at the grand opening of the Now House Windsor 5.

Where: 1291 Rankin Street, Bridgeview, Windsor

When: Tuesday, October 27, 2009 at 10 am.

- > Visit a 60-year-old post-war bungalow that has been taught to pay its own energy bills.
- > Take home some ideas of how to green your home—from spray foam insulation and energy-saving appliances to tankless water heaters and solar energy.
- > Be sure to bring the kids so they can test their Watt IQ in the electricity room.
